THROWING LIGHT IN DARK LOCALITY

City Council Takes Measures to Rid Vladuet Neighborhood of Undesirables.

(Special Correspondence.) Ogden, Nov. 1.—Fred L. Doddard of 231 Wall street, appeared before the city council at its last meeting and asked that a special policeman and an electric light be provided for the neighborhood of the vladuet on lower Twenty-fourth street. He claimed that the region is infested with bad characters and that life and property are in danger. He lives in that section of the city and declares that he is frequently compelled to leave his wife and child unprotected. His request for appointment of an officer was referred to Chief of Police Browning, with power to act. That part of the petition asking for a light caused considerable discussion. Many of the councilmen demanded that additional lights be placed in their wards, also. The matter was finally left to the light committee.

Upon the recommendation of the waterworks committee, the following extension of water mains were ordered by the council: On Second street west 1200 feet and a fire hydrant on Sixth street, 200 feet north from Ogden river; on Twentieth street, 300 feet east from Washington avenue.
Upon the motion of Councilman Austin the recorder was notified to direct the Ogden Rapid Transit company to extend its tracks to Thirty-third street from Wall avenue, according to the terms of the contract. The Oregon Short Line was also instructed to place its tracks at grade at Second street and Washington avenue, on motion of Councilman Barker.

NEW HOTEL RAPIDLY NEARING COMPLETION

Ogden, Nov. 1.—The Marion hotel, the new structure being erected by State Treasurer David Mattison on Twenty-fifth street in Lincoln avenue, is now rapidly nearing completion, the third story having been reached during last week. Every possible effort will be made to get the roof in place within the next two weeks. The building is a very creditable structure for the city and adds greatly to the appearance of Twenty-fifth street. The new building contains other buildings are being finished in all parts of the city and the mass of new dwellings, mostly cottages, is astonishing. There has been no building boom at all during the past summer, but there was probably never a time in the history of the city when so many structures were in the course of erection.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.

Ogden, Nov. 1.—A marriage license has been issued by the county clerk to Thomas Wilson Brown and Mabel Armstrong, both of Ogden.

SUIT TO QUIET TITLE.

Ogden, Nov. 1.—To quiet title to a certain piece of real estate in Weber county, William Hodson has started suit against the Utah Light & Power company, the Pioneer Electric Power company, the Union Light & Power company, and the Utah Light & Power company.

ORPHEUM ATTRACTIONS.

Ogden, Nov. 1.—Starting with the first night as a record breaker for the house, the present bill being presented at the Orpheum promises to eclipse anything thus far appearing at that popular house. Will H. Sloan and W.
H. (Bill) Mack & Co. in their new travesty, "High Life in Jail," heads the bill, and their songs and jokes are fine.
The feature of the bill is Ramezes, the Egyptian mystic, in a series of illusions, which is easily one of the best acts ever witnessed in Ogden. The entire bill is considerably above the average.

POLICE COURT RECORD.

Ogden, Nov. 1.—William Chapple, a shoemaker well past middle age, was arraigned before Judge Murphy on Monday on the charge of assault and battery committed on the person of J.
W. Browning, whose head and face looked as if a box car had fallen on him with great force. On the stand Chapple told of losing $60, and immediately jumping to the conclusion that Browning, a roomer at his house, had stolen it. Just how the trouble started, or what was used in the assault, was not very clear to the old fellow, but it seemed evident that a sledge hammer had been used. Browning did everything possible to save the matter from dropping, saying that he and Chapple were great friends. The court decided that the shoemaker was guilty and imposed a fine of $10, which was soon secured by Browning, leaving the John Casady was guilty of vagrancy and drew the regulation sentence of 10 days.
Frank Kagawa, a Jap, was charged with disturbing the peace and held under $30 bonds. The officers think the Jap is insane and if possible, an effort will be made to have the man deported. He has a mania for following women on the streets.
For riding on the sidewalk, George Lashus was fined $5.

Last Friday the pulley on an elevator used at the new school building broke, and the elevator with three men on it, fell quite a distance, bruising them quite badly, breaking a carpen-ter's arm. H. Lewis, a painter, in addition to bad bruises, got his back injured badly, and is now in a serious condition.

ket. A Mr. Chadwick of Salt Lake City is the buyer. The price of 4½ cents per head is being paid. This price was made some time ago and quite a number of sheep were purchased at that rate. Since then, some buyers are offering 4½ cents per pound, which means that the sheep men who out because of it.

TABER, CANADA.

RELIEF SOCIETY.
OFFICERS HONORED

Taber, Canada, Oct. 27.—A special conference of the Relief society of the Taylor stake of Zion was held this morning at Taber, in the L. D. S. assembly room, with a large number of stake and ward officers and members present. President Minnie Van Orman of Taber presided. During the session, reports were made by the stake officers and officers of the ward societies, all showing the society to have accomplished much work for the relief of the needy and afflicted. A spirit of earnest desire to continue in the work for which the organization was effected and to improve on the efforts of the past was apparent.
Last evening a pleasant surprise party was tendered the retiring president and first counselor of the stake, Hannah C. Russell and Kate L. Fox-man, who for several years have labored for the best good of the organization. The new president, Sarah members.

After the partaking of bounteous re-fully spent in songs, speeches, and recitations, concluding with an old-time dance, in which all participated. The affair is chronicled as the most pleasant and event of the society yet held in Taber.

RECENT DEATHS

SMITH, EMMA S.—Emma S.
Smith, one of the noted pioneers of Iron county, Utah, and of Arizona, died at her home in Snowflake, Ariz., Oct. 15, 1910, after a brief illness.
She was the daughter of Samuel West and Margaret Cooper, and was born Jan. 3, 1838, in Benton county, Tenn.
Her parents joined the Church the year previous and with them she endured all the hardships of the Saints in the expulsion from Illinois. She came to Utah in 1851 and in 1852 moved to Parowan. Here she met and married Jesse N. Smith, with whom she lived 54 years, he having preceded her by death four years ago.
She endured the privations and hardships of those early pioneer days, and cared for her family of small children in the absence of her husband, who was a missionary in Denmark. During his recent mission to Denmark, his wife Margaret died, leaving two small children. These she cared for, in addition to her own, and eight children of her husband's brother, Silas, making a family of 15 small children.

They moved from Parowan to Snowflake, Ariz., in 1880. In July of the same year she was chosen assistant to President Wilburth East, of the eastern Arizona stake Relief society and in 1883 became president. When the stake was divided Dec. 18, 1887, she was made president of the Snowflake stake Relief society in which office she faithfully served until Aug. 1905, when she was honorably released.
From her childhood she has been a valiant church worker. She was the mother of nine children, 94 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren.

OBITUARY.

Died, at Basalt ward, Idaho, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Martha Hone Johnson, wife of Seth Johnson of Cannonville, Utah, and daughter of the late Anthony J. and Martha J.
Stratton. She was born March 30, 1845, in Iowa, while her parents were traveling with the body of the Church to the west. She was married to Seth Johnson, Oct. 10, 1865, and was the mother of 11 children, eight of whom survive her.

MRS. MARTHA J. JOHNSON.

She was a thorough Latter-day Saint and was beloved by all who knew her.
She knew no selfishness; when any were sick or in trouble, she was the first to go to their aid, and she would leave her own home to go to comfort and assist them. She labored faithfully as a teacher in the ward Sunday school, Relief society and Primary. Funeral services were held at the Basalt meetinghouse with a very large attendance and consoling remarks were made by the bishop and elders, and she was laid in the ward cemetery.

FIVE TRAGEDIES IN FAMILY IN SIX MONTHS

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 1.—When Mrs. P. M. Gulou was killed at the Nevada asylum yesterday, tragedy stalked into her family for the fifth time within the last six months.

On April 29 last, Louis Hilson, an admirer of Mrs. W. D. Gulou, a daughter-in-law of the woman who was killed yesterday, murdered William Kinder. In order to get a gun to kill the woman he loved. After he shot and killed her and then committed suicide. On Aug. 12, W. D. Gulou, who in the meantime, had remarried, shot his 16-year-old wife and dangerously wounded her, because, he said, he "loved her still." He is now in the county jail charged with an attempt to commit suicide.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC

Social Reform Committee That Made Tour Says It Should Begin in The Nation's Capital.

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Asking for an endowment fund of $100,000 and suggesting that the first place to inaugurate a campaign against the "white slave" traffic is in the nation's capital, the 19 social reformers who left Chicago in September for a social purity campaign through the west, south and north, returned yesterday and made a report to the American Purity Federation.

The members of the delegation visited St. Paul, Minneapolis, Seattle, Tacoma, San Francisco, Houston, Texas, New Orleans, Memphis, Washington, and the principal cities of western Canada.

"They report that they found conditions much worse in the west than in Chicago, but not one of the delegation was willing to admit that Chicago had been slandered."

Congressman J. E. Mann, author of the white slave act, said that while all men were sorry for the vicious conditions which prevail in certain localities, yet the aim of efficient legislators was to secure the enactment of effective laws and not to engage in the wholesale expression of sentiments.

"When President Taft signed the white slave bill, he said to me, 'Now that you have a law, lose no time in arresting and imprisoning the men who engage in this traffic,' said Mr. Mann.
The president declared the men the vilest of all criminals and said it was now up to the people to catch them and prosecute them."
